ABOUT Us

It is our mission to supply the finest quality products from the most ethical sources. Because we work directly with the farmers and manufacturers we can assure our customers of consistent, uncompromising quality. We're also equipped with our own warehousing and distribution facilities, so customers can always trust that we only deliver the best.

Our manufacturing process is rigidly designed so that strict quality control is observed in every stage of production. From our Sri Lankan-based farms, all the way to our customers' doorsteps, we guarantee excellence.

Our products are processed using the highest quality standards, namely, ISO22000, BRC, HACCP, USDA Organic, EU Organic, SEDEX, Kosher and Fair Trade.

As we endeavor to become the #1 source for premium Sri Lankan organic food products in the U.S. we will continue to improve and expand our product offerings. Our California-based warehouse stocks a wide array of products including coconut, spices and super foods with door delivery and no minimums.

If you have any questions and are looking for a trusted partner of organic natural products, feel free to call us at (661) 372 6795, or send an email to info@hvaceylon.com.
